Ole Ottesen Killed at Deer Island Friday

Well Known Citizen Called From Mortal Life by Fatal Accident, Leaving Behind a Splendid Record

Perhaps no greater shock was ever felt by this community than when it became known on Friday afternoon that Olaf T. Ottesen was no more. It was as if terrible thunder had come from a clear sky.

The fatal accident occurred at Deer Island, opposite Sunnyside bay, about 40 miles southeast of Wrangell. Mr. Ottesen was out with a crew cutting cedar blocks to be used as corks in connection with fish traps. In the crew with Mr. Ottesen were C. H. Voss, Otto Close and Otto Fellows. Mr. Ottesen was standing at the base of a tree that was being felled. The falling tree struck another tree and bounced, striking Mr. Ottesen a blow which killed him instantly. The body was immediately brought to Wrangell by the other members of the crew.

The funeral was held in the Redmen's hall at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Redmen's lodge. The service was conducted by the Rev. H. P. Corser of the Episcopal Church and Ensign W. J. Caruthers of the Salvation Army. The hall was filled with friends whose hearts were overflowing with tenderness and sympathy.

This large attendance at the funeral was a silent demonstration of the fact that sorrow makes the world akin, and that even sorrow may serve to ennoble man by causing him to think, think deeply, think seriously. As sympathizing men and women, boys and girls, reflected upon the awful suddenness with which their friend had faced the mystery, the pathos, the tragedy, the glory of death, their thoughts worked quietly and deeply.

In addition to being a Redman Mr. Ottesen held membership in the Arctic Brotherhood.

The pall bearers were Ingvald C. Bjorge, Knig Johansen, L. A. Olsen, Thomas Dalgity, Arnt Sorset, and H. D. Campbell. Interment took place in the Redmen's cemetery.

Death came to Mr. Ottesen in the full vigor of his manhood. Rugged in frame and in character his very presence breathed a life current that infused into his home and business a tone and character that inspired absolute confidence in him. He never looked aside because the job seemed difficult, but turned with a vim upon every task presented to him. It seemed as if his boundless energy and healthfulness of temperament and body would have carried him through a century of usefulness.

Mr. Ottesen was one of the substantial citizens of the town. He took his share in the burdens of the community. In the important position which he held with the Alaska Packers' Association he was always faithful. His employers recognized his ability and granted him unusual discretionary powers. His career for the past 14 years has been interwoven with the growth and progress of the canning industry of this region.

His virtues and many fine traits of character found truest expression in the society of his wife and children. He was a loving husband, a devoted father and a sincere friend. His kindly spirit is no longer with us but the memory of his life of industry, energy, courage, perseverance and usefulness will linger like a benediction of good deeds.

These are but weak expressions of love and respect, but they are deeply sincere. The importance of a man's career should be measured by the good and excellent things he has done, and the obligations he has faithfully discharged. In an age like ours, when it often seems that vice yields more revenue than virtue, when fortunes are frequently obtained without labor, and money, not merit, often wins position and power, one who lives an honest, industrious and upright life is worthy of the admiration of his fellow beings.

Olaf T. Ottesen was born in Norway 38 years ago. He came to America when 17 years of age settling at Tacoma. In 1902 he entered the employ of the Alaska Packers' Association at Point Roberts, Puget Sound. Four years later he was transferred to Alaska and for the past 14 years had been in the employ of the Alaska Packers at Wrangell. For several years past he had been general outside foreman.

Mr. Ottesen's only relative in this country is a brother, Henry Ottesen, who resides in Tacoma. His parents and four sisters reside in Norway.

Mr. Ottesen was married in Tacoma, October 24, 1908, to Miss Hannah Magdalene Olsen who was the sweetheart of his boyhood days in Norway, and who came from the old country to marry him. Mrs. Ottesen has no relatives in America.

Three bright children blessed the Ottesen home. They are Harold, aged 10; Margaret Christine, aged 8; Einar, aged 5.

Mr. Ottesen left a comfortable estate. Five years ago he made a will in which he named his wife as the executrix without bonds.

Card of Thanks

Editor Wrangell Sentinel:

Through the columns of the Sentinel I wish to express to the people of Wrangell my deepest gratitude for their innumerable acts of kindness at the time of the tragic death of my beloved husband, Olaf T. Ottesen. Especially do I appreciate the services rendered by Mr. J. G. Grant, the Redmen's lodge and the Arctic Brotherhood. One thing, as long as memory remains, I shall never forget the many acts of tenderness which have to some extent at least, lessened the poignancy of the great grief that has come to me and my darling children.

Hannah M. Ottesen.

U. S. Commissioner Wm. G. Thomas has been busy lately making up a set of records for the new recording district at Petersburg. All real estate and other transfers that have been heretofore made in what is now the Petersburg recording district must be copied in the new records. Judge Thomassays the old records disclose the fact that there have been far more transfers made at Petersburg in the past than he realized, and therefore the job of transcribing a set of records for the new district is a much bigger undertaking than he at first supposed.

F. J. Furnival has resigned as manager of the Alaska Trust and Investment company of Ketchikan. S. L. Caldwell, secretary of the company, has succeeded Mr. Furnival as acting manager.

N. J. McNurney Retires

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. McNurney were aboard the City of Seattle southbound this morning. Mr. McNurney has been enlisted in the signal corps of the U. S. Army for a term of years and is now retiring on pay. He and Mrs. McNurney are en route to Los Angeles where they will stop for awhile. Mr. McNurney was in charge of the cable offices at Wrangell for a number of years. About a year ago he was transferred to Petersburg. Mr. and Mrs. McNurney take with them from Alaska the good wishes of a host of friends in both Wrangell and Petersburg. The Sentinel congratulates Mr. McNurney upon attaining a well earned play period.

Notice to Democrats

There will be a meeting of the Democratic club at the courthouse next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing two delegates to the convention to be held in Juneau February 16.

An invitation to be present is extended to Democratic voters, both men and women.

C. E. WEBER,
Chairman.

Walter Shadesty who has been in Seattle for several months returned home Sunday. When Walter left here he said he was going to stay until the end of the winter. Some kind friend from Alaska must have told him that the winter in Wrangell was over.

The first cargo of cannery supplies for the coming season were brought north on the last voyage of the City of Seattle. The cargo consisted of 250 tons of box shooks and wire netting and was consigned to the Alaska Pacific Fisheries at Yes bay. Owing to Yes bay being frozen up it was necessary to discharge the cargo at Ketchikan.

Fred Bevier has recently enlarged his boat shop. As soon as the weather moderates he will begin building a 48 foot boat for the F. C. Barnes company to be used at Lake Bay.

Mrs. H. E. Hoagg and Mrs. G. Ralston who were in Wrangell last week in the interest of the Bahai movement, left for Juneau on the City of Seattle Sunday morning.

Roy Shotwell, a member of the firm of C. E. Hibbs & company of Craig, arrived on the Glenora Friday. He will leave on the City of Seattle on a business trip of several weeks to the States.

Mrs. James Allen arrived this morning from Petersburg to join her husband who is associated with Gordon McDonald in the logging business.

W. W. Corbet of the Hills-Corbet company of Seattle arrived in Wrangell last week. He left on the "Princess Pat" Sunday for Hydaburg on a business trip.

Councilman Lindman recently purchased a drag saw run by gas engine, and during the cold weather has been busy cutting a supply of wood sufficient for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Petersburg were aboard the City of Seattle this morning. They were en route to Olympia to visit relatives.

The ladies of Wrangell are requested to meet at the Wrangell hotel next Monday evening at 7:30 to make arrangements for a Leap Year dance.

Princess Pat Makes Initial Trip West Coast

The Princess Pat, the new mail boat owned by Walter Waters, left Sunday morning on her maiden voyage to the West Coast. She carried, in addition to the mail, a full cargo of freight and 20 passengers. Among those who took passage on the Princess Pat on her initial voyage were the following:

For Tokcen—B. A. McGill, S. Sampson, N. Thornton, H. Danielson, Chris Steve, John Lee, Pete Sandal.

For Bayview—Charles Demmert.

For Craig—G. W. Upshaw and M. O. Johnston.

For Hydaburg—W. W. Corbet.

The new boat is 64 feet in length with a 12-foot, 6-inch beam and is powered with a 65 h. p. Frisco Standard engine. The boat was shipped knocked down from the De Foe company of Grand Rapids, Michigan. The frame is of oak, and the planking of cypress, while the cabins and pilot house are of Alaska cedar. The boat is fitted with the latest Pullman berths, which will enable passengers to travel between Wrangell and West Coast points with such comfort as has not been possible heretofore.

SCHOOL NOTES

The girls' Lend a Hand club will give a luncheon and candy sale at the gymnasium on Saturday afternoon, January 31. A musical program will be given at that time.

The boys of the Grammar and High school rooms invited the girls' Lend a Hand club to hear a debate last Wednesday.

John Coulter and Elton Engstrom were chosen by their class as representatives in the oratorical contest which will soon take place with the High school.

The school has subscribed for the following magazines: Independent, National Geographic, Modern Priscilla, Mothers' Magazine, Little Folks' Land, John Martin's Book, St. Nicholas. The High school students substitute magazine reports for their regular English work every Tuesday.

Gust Henrikson and Charles Moberg returned Sunday from a trip to the States.

Dr. D. A. Griffin arrived from Bellingham on Sunday.

FOUND—By C. U. Ponce, a lady's handbag. Owner may recover by paying for this ad.

The Civic Improvement club will meet with Mrs. J. G. Grant tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

F. D. Cheney returned Sunday from an extended visit in Seattle and Tacoma.

L. J. McDonald of the McDonald-Wiess Logging company, was aboard the City of Seattle Sunday en route from Portland to Juneau.

James H. Wheeler of Petersburg arrived this morning on the City of Seattle.

L. B. Chisholm returned to Juneau on the City of Seattle Monday.

G. W. Upshaw, vice president of the Bank of Alaska, made a business trip to Craig this week.

Shall Wrangell Have a Municipal Magistrate

At the regular monthly meeting of the town council held last Thursday evening an ordinance providing for a municipal magistrate for the Town of Wrangell. After some discussion of the subject the council decided to submit the matter to the voters of Wrangell at the annual municipal election which will be held the first Tuesday in April. Following is a copy of the proposed ordinance:

An ordinance providing for the establishment of a municipal court in the Town of Wrangell, Alaska; defining the jurisdiction of such court and for a course of procedure in such court.

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the Town of Wrangell:

Section 1. A municipal court is hereby established and created in and for the Town of Wrangell, which shall be presided over by the municipal magistrate, who shall have jurisdiction and power to hear, try and determine all cases arising under the ordinances of the Town of Wrangell and to punish for violation of any ordinance of the said Town.

Sec. 2. That immediately after the passage and approval of this ordinance the common council of the Town of Wrangell shall proceed to appoint a suitable person as municipal magistrate whose term of office shall expire with the life of the common council now in office and thereafter the said common council shall appoint a suitable person to fill such office at the same time and in the same manner as other officers of the said town are appointed.

Sec. 3. The municipal magistrate, before entering upon the performance of his duties shall take and subscribe to an oath faithfully and honestly perform the duties of his office, which oath shall be filed in the office of the municipal clerk.

Sec. 4. The municipal magistrate shall give a bond with two sufficient sureties, to the Town of Wrangell, to be approved by the common council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, which bond shall be filed in the office of the municipal clerk.

Sec. 5. The municipal magistrate shall make and file with the municipal clerk, and the clerk shall submit to the council, on the first day of the months of January, April, July and October, in each year, or within 10 days thereafter, a full and complete report of the business transacted in his office and court for the quarter preceding, in which said report shall be set forth, in appropriate columns, the names of persons arrested and brought before the court, the date thereof, the offense charged, disposition of the case made, the amount of fine imposed, term of commitment, amount of fines and fees collected, and the amount of fees due to witnesses and other persons and the names of such persons.

Sec. 6. All fines, penalties and costs collected by the municipal magistrate shall be covered into the town treasury monthly, and duplicate receipts taken therefor, one of which shall be filed with the municipal clerk.

Sec. 7. As soon as the municipal magistrate has been appointed, the common council shall fix the monthly salary to be paid to such officer, and the amount thereof shall not be increased or decreased during the term of any such municipal magistrate, and such salary shall be paid in the same manner as the salaries of other officers of the Town of Wrangell are paid.

Sec. 8. The municipal magistrate shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all violations of ordinances passed by the Town of Wrangell and may issue warrants of arrest, grant and admit to bail or commit to prison any offender, and pass judgment that the defendant pay a fine, and

Attention Mr. Business Man and Mr. Fisherman

The Alaska Union Fisheries Inc., a strictly cooperative concern has been organized among the fishermen and working men of Southeastern Alaska, for the purpose of carrying on the fishing industry in all its branches in Alaska and the waters adjacent thereto which shall include the catching and acquiring and marketing of fish, the construction and operation of canneries, cold storage plants and mild-curing stations, and generally to engage in any business incidental to the catching, acquiring, preserving and marketing of fish and fish products. The amount of capital stock in this corporation is $500,000.00 divided into 5,000 shares of the par value of $100.00 each, and these may be paid for in cash or liberty bonds or labor at the actual value thereof. Liberty bonds are taken at par.

We are starting the construction of a cannery and cold storage plant in Port Conclusion about the 20th of March. This plant will be built entirely by Alaska labor and Alaska lumber.

It is the duty of every man and woman who has the interest of Alaska at heart to get in and help the fishermen and workers of Alaska to build and own their own industries.

It is up to all the business men in Alaska to get behind the fishermen in this movement to build and own their industries.

Remember, Mr. Business Man, that out of every $1.00 the fishermen of Alaska receive above the price that the people who at present own and control the Fishing Industry are willing to pay them for their fish or labor, at least $0.80 passes through your hands. In order to carry out our program this year we must raise approximately $40,000 more by the first of April. In order to be able to place our orders machinery and other supplies in time for this year's operations all subscriptions for stock must be in by April first. Therefore all stock subscribed for after April first will not draw any dividends this year. If you are not able to pay cash for one or more shares now we will let you pay for it in installments.

Any fisherman or working man can become a shareholder by going to work with us and helping us to construct our plant in Port Conclusion and then take part of his pay in stock. All the work of building is going to be done by the shareholders themselves thereby also making of this enterprise a true home industry.

For further information see our agent, John A. Peterson, in Wrangell, or write direct to Alaska Union Fisheries, Inc., Ketchikan, Alaska.

Is God Your Friend? Then Visit
His Home. Go to Church.

WATCH the long line of people entering church on Sunday. Isn't it a fact that they are really the worth while people in the community? If you are a business man, don't you prefer dealing with a man who is a CONSISTENT CHURCHGOER rather than with a man who never goes to church? You wouldn't hesitate to INVITE ANY AND ALL OF THESE PEOPLE entering church to your home.

A MAN WHO GOES TO CHURCH CANNOT GO WRONG VERY LONG. A COMMON EXPRESSION IS THAT SOME PEOPLE GO TO CHURCH TO KEEP UP APPEARANCES.

THAT MAY BE TRUE. BUT THE FACT THAT A MAN WANTS THE COMMUNITY IN WHICH HE LIVES TO THINK THAT HE IS GOOD AND GOD FEARING SHOWS THAT HE WANTS TO BE GOOD. HE WANTS TO ENJOY THE RESPECT OF HIS FELLOWS. WHILE THERE MAY BE SOME HYPOCRITES IN THE CHURCH, IT IS NO EXAGGERATION TO STATE THAT THE GREAT MAJORITY OF CHURCHGOERS ARE HONEST, UPRIGHT CITIZENS.

There is something basically wrong with a man who, while professing a belief in a Supreme Being, fails to take the opportunity the church affords to WORSHIP THAT SUPREME BEING. If you have a dear friend and you pass his house every day without dropping in to see him, you would not blame that man for DOUBTING THE SINCERITY of your friendship.

Do you wish God to DOUBT YOUR FRIENDSHIP? Do you want to LOSE HIM AS A FRIEND. If you don't, drop into his house AT LEAST ONCE A WEEK.

Show that you are sincere in your belief in God by GOING TO CHURCH next Sunday.

THEN GO TO CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY

to him in any trial or proceeding in said court, shall be guilty of contempt and may be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding 30 days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

This ordinance to be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.

Attention Ex-Service Men

The Sentinel is in receipt of the following circular letter from the Governor's office:

Governor's Office
Juneau

January 21, 1920.

Publisher Sentinel,
Wrangell, Alaska.

The Governor's office is compiling a roster of all men who served their country during the Great War and who were residents of Alaska at the time they entered the service.

In order to get the desired information, we have prepared a questionnaire and are sending it to every man whose address is known to this office. But, as many of the men cannot be reached, we are requesting your cooperation in giving publicity to the questionnaire.

Will you kindly publish the fact that we desire the address of every ex-service man, whether or not he is in Alaska or outside at the present time. Upon receipt of the addresses, questionnaires will be forwarded to them. I am also taking the liberty of sending you a supply of the questionnaires and request that you advise ex-service men that a copy may be secured at your office.

Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

G. F. CRAMER,
Secretary to the Governor.

The supply of questionnaires referred to in the above communication have been received, and any ex-service man may obtain one by calling at the Sentinel office.

to Mayor by Ketchikan
Labor Union

The Ketchikan local of the Alaska Labor Union recently turned over to Mayor R. E. Petty a quantity of I. W. W. literature that had been received by the Union, much of it addressed to B. R. Sawyer, former secretary of the union. The literature is of the character, the sale or distribution of which is forbidden under the Ketchikan ordinance. Mayor Petty said the literature was given to him voluntarily by officers of the Union, and that he would turn it over to the federal authorities.—Empire.

Trapping News

A. J. Morrison sold 38 mink pelts Monday to a local buyer for $14 each.

Trapping within the city limits of Wrangell proved profitable enough for "Mickey" Prescott on Monday. He visited his trap line on the marsh and took three mink from the traps. A small dog that he had with him then got on the trail of a black wolf. The wolf turned on the dog and chased him back to within a few yards of its master. Prescott fired at the wolf with a shotgun bringing him down with a load of No. 4 shot. The wolf pelt is worth $30, while the bounty paid by the Territory is $15. The three mink skins are worth from $12 to $15 each.

Mr. Demmert says that while in Seattle he heard it reported that W. T. Hale has resigned as superintendent of the Klawock cannery owned by the North Pacific Trading and Packing company, and that Jack Lindsey will succeed Mr. Hale as superintendent. Mr. Hale, it is reported, will engage in tuna and sardine canning in California.

An Unwarranted Quarantine Against Wrangell

But Was of Too Short Duration to Do Any Serious Harm

Wrangell was furnished with quite a bit of unexpected news when the City of Seattle arrived early Sunday morning. No sooner had the steamer tied up at the dock than a local transfer man attempted to go aboard as usual. A guard at the gangplank turned him back, at the same time informing him that no Wrangellites would be permitted to go aboard nor would any through passengers be permitted to come ashore. J. G. Grant then interviewed the guard as to the cause for such an order, and was told that the mayor of Ketchikan had ordered a quarantine against Wrangell. Mr. Grant lost no time in reporting the matter to Mayor Pritchett. The mayor thought Mr. Grant was undertaking to play a practical joke, as such news seemed too preposterous to be true. However, the mayor undertook to go aboard the vessel. He was promptly stopped. He then requested the guard to send word to the master of the vessel that the mayor would like to see him. Captain Bob McGilvray happened to be in command and very kindly responded to the request. When asked what it was all about Captain McGilvray very courteously explained that the Pacific Steamship company had been officially advised that Ketchikan had established a quarantine against Wrangell on account of small pox at Wrangell. He also stated that before sailing from Ketchikan notice was served on him personally by Ketchikan authorities that if passengers were taken on board or permitted to go ashore at Wrangell his vessel would be quarantined.

It was not yet daylight, but it was imperative that something be done at once. Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson and several others had purchased tickets to Juneau and unless the Ketchikan orders could be overcome they would be left behind. The mayor came uptown and got Dr. Shurick out of bed and requested him to officially notify the master of the City of Seattle that there was no small pox in Wrangell. The doctor wrote an official notification to Captain McGilvray to the effect that Wrangell was absolutely free from small pox. Under his signature Dr. Shurick wrote "Acting Assistant Surgeon of the Public Health Service of Alaska" which would probably carry as much weight as any official notices the steamship company had received from the municipality of Ketchikan.

The mayor delivered the health officer's note to Captain McGilvray, and he immediately notified the purser that passengers would be taken on from Wrangell, and that any one aboard who cared to go ashore could do so.

The mayor was leaving the boat when L. J. McDonald, a through passenger, called to him saying: "Joe Baronovich was at the dock when we left Ketchikan and he asked me to try to send word to his wife to cable him to what extent the epidemic was spreading in Wrangell."

In the meantime Dr. Shurick had gotten on the job. He sent a pointed message by cable to the mayor of Ketchikan. He sent another cablegram to the Territorial Commissioner of Health informing him that Ketchikan had established an unwarranted quarantine against Wrangell. He then furnished Agent Leo McCormack of the Pacific Steamship company a copy of the official notification he had sent to Captain McGilvray.

Mr. McCormack realized the gravity of the situation at once for, as he explained, when a steamship agent is notified of a quarantine he is required to immediately notify Port Captain Storrs at Seattle in order that he may stop the sale of tickets to the port where the epidemic exists, and, if thought best, to have no vessels call at such port during the epidemic. Mr. McCormack said that the agent at Ketchikan would only be discharging his proper duty in notifying Seattle of the quarantine against Wrangell. Mr. McCormack lost no time in transmitting to his company by cable a copy of the official notice from the Health officer. Later in the day Mayor Pritchett was notified by cable from Seattle that the steamship companies would continue to book passengers to Wrangell as usual.

Before leaving Ketchikan Ensign Carruthers heard some travelling men trying to charter a boat to take them to Craig. They had intended to come to Wrangell on the City of Seattle and go out on the initial voyage of the Princess Pat, but the quarantine made them change their plans.

Before the City of Seattle sailed from Wrangell Mr. Cliff, the purser, handed the Sentinel man copies of the two daily newspapers of Ketchikan. Both of them had given prominence to the item that a quarantine had been established against Wrangell. The Ketchikan Times published the following story in a border at the top of its front page:

Mayor Petty announced that the town of Ketchikan will not permit passengers from Wrangell.

Klawock or Shakan to land here on account of the small pox epidemic which is reported to be raving in those places. There are ten cases of small pox in Wrangell, six cases in Klawock and four cases in Shakan. Mayor Petty said that if any one landed from any of the boats coming from any of the above named towns they would be placed in quarantine in Ketchikan for a period of 21 days. All mail coming from these towns will be fumigated before being handled in Ketchikan. Every precaution will be taken to prevent the epidemic from gaining a foothold in Ketchikan and the health officers are vigilantly watching every boat which arrives.

The thought of Wrangell being bottled up indefinitely on account of a "small pox epidemic" that was a myth, a delusion, and a snare, was anything but a pleasing prospect.

That the action of Ketchikan in quarantining against Wrangell was without the sanction of the Territorial Commissioner of Health is indicated by the following cablegram:

Juneau, Jan. 25, 1920.

Shurick, Wrangell.

No knowledge quarantine Ketchikan and Wrangell until your cable. No need for such act. Do not approve. Will cable Ketchikan same.

Sloan, Health Commissioner.

Then came the following cablegram from Ketchikan which brings the story to an end with a smile:

Ketchikan, Jan. 26, 1920.

Dr. S. C. Shurick, Wrangell.

Glad to hear quarantine unnecessary. Lifted immediately. Thanks for prompt information.

Petty, Mayor.

Wrangell Was Temporarily Off the Map.

Last Saturday's Juneau Empire reports that the new mail boat, "Princess Pat," after being inspected at Juneau, left for her headquarters at Ketchikan.
